AL FATTAH AL ALEEM MOSQUE

A Landmark of Faith. An Icon of Light.

Egypt's now largest mosque, Al-Fattah Al-Aleem, is a magnificent masterpiece located in the New Administrative Capital. Designed to accommodate more than 17,000 worshippers, it stands among the largest mosques in the world both in scale and architectural grandeur.

Built in Islamic Fatimid architecture style, the mosque features a 6,325m² prayer yard and a 6,700m² external prayer yard, five main entrances, a dedicated women's prayer hall, four secondary domes (12.5m diameter, 10m height), and four majestic minarets rising 92m high.

AIMEX Egypt was honored to be awarded the design, supply, supervision, and commissioning of the façade and landscape lighting, bringing the mosque's architectural beauty to life and creating a serene spiritual landmark that inspires awe and tranquility.
